

Abundant Living – Part 1 of 2

Discussion Questions

1. Why is it important to have a vision for your life?
2. How would your life be better if you realized your vision? How about a vision of your life in the kingdom, how different would that look compared to your current life?
3. If you have time, take a few minutes to begin a vision statement. If not, set aside some time this week and began to write a vision statement for yourself. A vision of "What is your life like with God when you are living close with God?" See the back of this worksheet for some vision statement ideas. We will ask you to share some of yours next week, if you're comfortable with doing so.
4. What is your takeaway from this session?

Key Points:

- Intimacy is shared experience.
- The test of a transforming vision is its ability to elicit unforced desire.
- When the vision is strong enough, it's not so much that you have a vision, it's that the vision has you.
- Vision without methods produces frustration, but method without vision produces legalism.
- Oh Holy Night. "Long lay the world in sin and error pining, Till He appeared and the soul felt its worth."
